It’s you
Ahlam Abdi / SBD509AA

It’s you it’s always you
I know it’s gonna be you
Met a lot of people but
So please don’t break my heart
I know how I start trust me
Don’t break me again
Break my heart trust me
I know how it’s feels to be open
I been broken before
I been broken before

If I’m ever gonna fall in love
It’s you it’s always you
Nobody feels like you
Don’t tear me apart
I been broken before
I’m delicate please don’t
And then find out your love
Isn’t real I’m still hurting I’m hurting
Inside ,I’m so scared to fall
In love ,but if it’s then I will try.
