Chapter One

Amy and Sam went jogging together. Amy was wearing a black T-shirt and jeans, Sam was wearing a Black T-shirt and jeans and they were laughing together. Suddenly, she was hit by a car, the man who ran over her was called George was used to love her but she didn’t love him back and she got married to her love, so he wanted revenge.

Then the police and the ambulance came. To the scene of the accident, they found her husband so nervous and shocked because his wife lost her sight When they took her to the hospital, the doctor said “We need an eye donor”.

After her husband heard that, he said I found the donor, everybody was shocked and they said “Who?”. He said, “me”. Everybody was nervous and the doctor said come tomorrow and we will do it.

Then after one week, she could open her eyes, she looked around her but she couldn’t see her husband. She, asked them, “Where is my husband?” They replied “In the other room”. She went there but she was shocked! He was waiting for her to come but when she saw him blind, she left him and he was so sad but he couldn’t do anything it was too late now.
After that one day she was in a coffee shop and George was there! I haven’t seen you for whispered long time I didn’t saw you and she said to him how do you know me and he said I was in love but you are married now. She said I left my husband he asked why but she didn’t want to answer him.

After that he squealed would you like to marry me? She said of course! Why she say yes? And she said to him we have to find out who ran over me and he was shocked and mumbled I promise you and he married her. After one month despite living in a beautiful house, driving an amazing car and having a very good job she still feels bad.

But she said I have to go back to my love and help him because he is a real man.
