Love at First Sight

Written by Hassan Bapiroo
Chapter One

summer night Paul was sitting in a coffee shop. While he was sitting, he saw a beautiful lady with nice hair and green eyes walk in. Paul was shocked when he saw the gorgeous girl. He was a little bit nervous to ask her out. Finally, he decided to invite her to a special restaurant. Paul and Sophie met each other in the right place at the right time. She seemed surprised when she got the restaurant. It was a huge restaurant with glass chairs and a glass of wine free. In the end, both of them seemed happy. Paul told her that he bought two tickets for cinema because he was interested in watching a movie with Paul at the end of the movie. They had a very good kiss.

Chapter Two

After one year, he proposed to her in Paris in front of Eiffel Tower. He was going down on his knee and said, "Will you marry me?" Tears came out of her eyes and she said yes. Finally, they were getting married and decided to spend their honeymoon in Dubai. The weather in Dubai was hot. Sadly, the hotel they were booking burned down. Paul and Sophie came back to their home alone. She was sad about what happened in Dubai. After that, she tried very hard to do many things to forget him. She was very thoughtful about him. She had met a lot of doctors to give her advice to forget him, but the advice wasn’t helpful. Suddenly, in a dark night, she killed herself at home.
Love at First Sight

You fall in love with someone and get together and spend the rest of your life with them. How nice is that? But remember life is too short, anything could happen at any time.
