In 1967, one of the cold winter day, between those lofty and nice houses there was a small house in the corner which was about to fall. In this house, destitute family lived there, who had neither the money nor enough food. The children were starving in the cold.

One day, Olivia who is the older daughter of their parents, explained to her mom nervously, “although we worked hard all day, but we don’t get enough money to buy food. I need to find a good job in order to live better.” Her mom was distracted. After a long thought, she said “ok, go to the royal palace and give this letter to Anna who works there”. Hopefully, she is going to find a good job for herself in the palace.

The next day it was Monday. She went to the train station, and the journey had started. After one hour, the train stopped at the border. Some of the border officials got into the train, the train was very crowded and deafening. The border officials looked at everybody’s travel documents. One of them looked at Olivia’s documents. Then he look at her carefully. He was surprised about something.

After 3 hours. She arrived. The palace was the most beautiful place she had ever seen. It was magical, unique and also giant. The next morning, she started her new job in the palace. While she was cleaning the princess’s room, the door was opened. A woman wearing luxurious clothes, came in. I couldn’t see her face because the sunlight was coming through the window toward her face. And there were some strong guards. They were protecting the princess. I knew that she was the princess Lavonia.

When she came to the room, we both were surprised! I felt like I was looking in the mirror. The princess had smooth long blonde hair, same like me. She had kind, beautiful blue eyes. We were looking exactly the same.

Then we spoke, she asked me about my family. From my point of view, she was very kind. But at the same time, she was very strong, wise and she spoke several languages fluently. While I was talking to the princess about her family, I told her about the poor people who live in workhouse. But suddenly, I realised what I was talking about. I was Shocked and I asked her to get her permission to get out the room immediately. I went out the room. I was nervous and worried and the princess noticed that.
The manager of the services entered and she yelled with angry face that “I will be the personal services for the princess”. The day after, I went to work like usual. Then the princess came in, she started to ask me about the people who were in workhouses, and about the aid which she sent monthly. Then I said politely and in quiet voice “Your majesty, but you send it once or twice in the whole year”.

The princess shouted “HOW IT CAN THAT HAPPENED”. She went to the records room quickly then she found some fake records file, her brother came to the records room, and some of the most important men in the kingdom they all laughed “Now, you know everything”.

She said “why did you do that?” Her brother yelled “what did you expect that you will become the queen and I will just watch? I had to do something”. One man from behind shouted “She should not be crowned nor was even should be lived”. They all shouted she must die. After that the princess was imprisoned. He wanted to kill her after the coronation. she saw him become the king and she felt sad.

His name was Alex, he was huge and had green eyes and long red hair, he was one of the strongest and the most handsome men in all the kingdom. But on the other side he was very rude, selfish and irresponsible. He was her half-brother.

Today is the coronation day, the city was packed on the coronation day. However, the princess still wasn’t found. We had to do something or Alex will become the king. Olivia had to be the queen.

The day after the coronation I received letter my real name was om it. I opened immediately. The message used to say the following:
{Please don’t show this letter to anyone. I know the truth that you aren’t the real queen, I know everything from the first. The queen is in a big dangerous. Come and meet me in the forest at midnight, alone.}

After that I told my loyal guards about the letter. Asked them for their opinions. They prevented me from going alone because they thought it may be a trap, but at that time I wasn’t thinking about my life. I was thinking about the about the princess safety. I went to my room, to let everyone think I was sleeping. After that an hour before the midnight, I went out of the palace.
When I arrived the in forest, I saw a young man, he was tall and he had black eyes and long curly hair. He was very handsome and polite. His name was Abanoub. I asked him “Did you write that letter?” and “Do you know where the princess is?” He said, “if you will keep mutter, how I am supposed to answer”

He said “this is a trap and, who I am it is not important. You must leave the royal palace, you must leave all the Afriba”. Prince Edward is a dangerous person and he wants to kill you. He shouted “Now go”. I asked is the queen alive is she ok? He said “yes, but I don’t know where she is” and you must leave.” Then suddenly we heard loud voice.

At that moment we knew that they were here. He held my hand, and we ran as fast as we can. And he said “I know a private place. But you will not go to the palace because of the enemies beside it is the first place they will look for you. Then he took me to a small inn. While I was taking my bags. I heard a young lady speaking about Prince Edward. What I knew was that her sister worked for the princess. I asked politely “can you help please? My bags are very heavy” and when we arrived to my room. I took the scarf off. She was surprised and she said “This is you. Your Majesty!” I said “yes, and I need your help, do you know anyone who works in the prince’s castle?” she said “I work there.” I asked “how can I get into prince’s castle”

She said “there are a small house close to the castle. In this house there is an underground road, it takes you exactly to the lab and then to whatever you want” I thanked her. And while I was on my way I met that man again and he wanted to come with me.

The castle was in a great forest, it was on the top and it had a big gate. Like just the woman said we did, we fought the people who were in the lab, and then we opened the big gate and all the soldiers got in and we won. Now the princess is back to her kingdom, and everything change, and the kingdom had become the happiest country in the world also it had evolved, Abanoub and me got married. Tell me, what do you think did the princess gave her brother second chances?
At the beginning, the life was not easy for poor people like me. How I will save all the Country? This story is about a poor girl Olivia who is poor, and look like the princess. They both are going through many difficulties in their lives.
