There were two brothers Mikey and Sammy. They were living in a beautiful town. Mikey was really poor and working in a train station while Sammy had a nice job in a company. One day, Mickey saw a beautiful girl Lina who was wearing a fancy dress and high shoes. He falls in love with her, and decided that he will get married only to her.

On the second day, He sees the same girl again talking on the phone. He went near to her and start talking to her. Lina got scared first, but after sometime she looked fine, and they became friends. After a long time, one day he decided to go and propose to her. First he called her and told her to come to that place where we met at the first time.

When he reached there, he saw Sammy with Lina. He got shocked and asked “do you know each other” but unfortunately Lina says “Sammy is my boyfriend and soon we are getting married “Mickey fell down and when woke up he remember the things that happened with him.

He suggested to himself “I would never ever do a job again at train stations because it will remind me of Lina.
