Gold digger

Written by Usman Khakhel
My friend is Mark and he was born in Bradford. He was very thoughtful, however, he always struggled in his studies and worked. In his free time, he was working in a restaurant and he was a normal boy and he didn’t spend money on his style. Mark always saved money in his bank.

15 years letter, he saved a lot of money because he had a good job in the summer session and visited London. He was going around the city but there was a gold digger girl and she was going behind him. After she got his contact number Emily had a relationship with Mark. Mark fell in love with her and he always thought about her. One day they went on a date and after the date he bought flower and gave them to her and ‘I love you’, then a few months later, he proposed to her and she accepted him they were very happy later they got married and they went to USA for the honeymoon.

Mark was an honest person and he kept him money with his wife, but his wife plan to escape. After that Mark was doubtful about her that she will be doing something wrong however, he didn’t know that she will steal all money. however, she didn’t tell him and left his home and got his money. Emily went to America

When Mark found out about that, he was very nervous because she stole his money. Mark always thought about that, why she did that with me? After he got ill and he called his friends his name was Mike and he was one of the honest friends. He spent days and nights with him because he wasn’t feeling good. After a few days when he felt well, he started search around the city but he didn’t find her. later that Mark went to the police station, however he has just her date of birth information. When he arrived at the police station, officer said did you have any information about her like ID or passport? Mark Said, I have just her date of birth information, but he needed more information but he didn’t have it anymore.

Finally, when Mark about her he had gone there. He struggled to find her. After one-month later he found his wife but she spent all him money. she felt nervous and she told him to give her a divorce and he came back home with nothing no money and no wife.
‘World is full of fake people trust no one’.

A gold digger girl gets married for money. Does she like money? Does she get married for money or does she really love him?
