Finding full text journal articles for an assignment

Are you looking for journal articles for your assignment? Do you have the details of the journal article you are looking for?

Yes

Search for the Journal Title on the A to Z of Journal Titles. Off campus you will need to enter your College username and password.

Is the journal title available online in full text for the year and volume/issue that you need?

Yes

Click on the blue link to open the journal online, make a note of any login details and then click on the year, the volume/issue and then the link provided to read the full text of the article.

No

You will need to use DISCOVER@BradfordCollege to search for journal articles on your assignment. Off campus you will need to enter your College username and password.

Enter the keywords for your search into DISCOVER. You will be searching the Library Catalogue as well as most of the databases that the Library subscribes to.

Is the journal title available as a print version in the Library for the year and volume/issue that you need?

Yes

To read the full text of the journal articles click on the PDF Full Text or HTML Full Text links from the results list.

No

Unfortunately we do not subscribe to the journal in print or online. We may be able to request the article for you from the British Library. Please fill in an Inter-Library loan journal article request form on Moodle. There is a £2.00 charge.

Is the journal title available as a print version in the Library for the year and volume/issue that you need?

Check the Library Catalogue.

No

If we have the date and volume/issue that you need you can visit the library to read the journal.